

Providing Quality Adult Education

Health and Ageing CHC40608 Certificate IV in Leisure and Health

Course Overview

This course is for people who work or want to work in residential facilities and/or in community agencies and day centres as an activities officer, community leisure officer, disability officer, diversional therapy assistant or recreational activities officer.

You will develop the skills and knowledge to assist in the design, implementation and evaluation of health and leisure for clients. This includes knowledge of leisure and health programming, legal and ethical considerations, and workplace safety as well as specialist communication skills.

Why choose King's?

Established in 1997, King's International College with campuses at Reedy Creek and Burleigh is recognised for delivering quality training in the health, children's services, automotive and hospitality sectors.

As King's is a community focused non-profit organisation, its surplus funds made from training delivery goes back to either improving or expanding the college's range of courses or goes into its community welfare organisation, the Community Support Agency (CSA).

King's undertakes a duty of care towards its student body and offers course counseling as required.
