What are my employment opportunities?

Graduates will be able to work in the aged care industry, hospitals, in local government bodies, community organisations, Home and Community Care (HACC) services and health agencies.

How long does it take?

The course duration is 14 weeks. The delivery mode involves 10 weeks of theoretical class delivery (three days per week) and 4 weeks of field placement.

Field Placement

Field Placement forms an essential part of your competency-based assessment and provides you with practical job skills and work experience. There is one placement of up to 100 hours that the educator will assist you in organising. During the final 4 weeks, the educator then visits all students at their field placements to assess their competency.

Entry requirements

Students must be competent in Literacy in order to fulfill course requirements. If you feel you have literacy needs that may impair your ability to work in this program please discuss this with an educator and an assessment interview can be arranged.

Students younger than 18 years must have parental/guardian approval.

Support

Ongoing email and phone support is offered during the duration of the course.

King's undertakes a duty of care towards its student body and offers course counselling as required.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning provides students an opportunity to have their current skills and competencies recognised. These skills and competencies may relate to units you are about to commence and as a result can exempt you from studying these units. However, there is a cost related to obtaining Recognition of Prior Learning.

The process requires students to gather evidence confirming their competency. An educator will advise you in this task. Enquire if you think you qualify.

Costs & Further Information

There is a non-refundable enrolment fee required upon receipt of your enrolment form. Your place will not be confirmed unless this payment has been made. This fee applies to all courses.
