From a background of violence, to a short time of vandalism during the 1950s, he led an interesting life followed by managing several businesses and then being dramatically converted to the Christian faith during his teenage years.

Pastor Greening has a genuine desire to see our local churches blessed and has a burden to see the lost won to Christ.

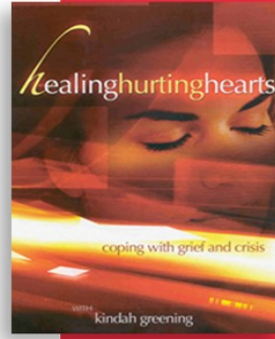

He is a positive motivator with an excellent gift of ministering in the Spirit at the altar. He moves with sensitivity in the prophetic and in words of knowledge.

HEALING HURTING HEARTS MINISTRY

Kindah and Joan Greening can empathize with others going through the trauma of losing someone because they have been through it themselves. Early in their ministry, they lost their first daughter as a baby and then several years ago, their adult daughter passed on through a sudden illness.

As a result, "Healing Hurting Hearts" ministry was formed.

Kindah currently conducts "Coping With Grief & Crisis" seminars, both nationally and internationally. More than 30,000 registered people have been ministered to through these seminars.
